

Student Ministry Director/Pastor

We are currently looking for a full-time high energy, hard-working, multi-talented spiritual leader for students and families of Community Covenant Church and greater San Diego area. We are especially interested in Student Ministry leaders who are gifted in student discipleship, outreach, and spiritual care. Worship leading giftedness is not a requirement but a highly desired value. Other qualities we care about are patience, kindness, and a good sense of humor.

At CCC we long for our students to grow in the practices that guide our whole community. The director of student ministries is expected to integrate the following essential practices into their vision for students, parents, leaders, and into their personal faith experience.

WORSHIP—The student ministry director will model and help students discover and grow in their relationship to God. This includes the planning and implementation of spiritual growth programs, activities and events that include opportunities for kids to worship. Our student ministry director will involve students in the ministry of the church participate in the church's vision, worship services, and activities.

COMMUNITY— The student ministry director will create a culture of connection by planning events and opportunities for kids to know and be known by each other in ways that will be fun and provide potential for deeply spiritual relationships (e.g. retreats, camps, and special events). The student ministry director values every student equally and communicates regularly with parents so they can be involved and engaged with their student's and each others' lives.

MISSION— The student ministry director will challenge students to share their love for God for the sake of others. This includes service projects, global mission awareness, and participation in church ministries that reach out to the their local church, their community and world.

FORMATION— The student ministry director will show students how become followers of Jesus, learn Biblical truths, and develop spiritual practices that are appropriate and formative for their faith. The Student Ministry Director will remain faithful to historical and orthodox teaching that is consistent with the affirmations of The Evangelical Covenant Church. The Student Ministry Director will meet regularly with your volunteers and staff for encouragement, consistent training and equipping.

In addition to the above, the Student Ministry Director attends Sunday morning worship, weekly staff meetings, and general church events that provide opportunity for deep connection to CCC. We understand that ministry to students and their families is a unique calling requiring a high level of personal investment. It is expected that the Student Ministry Director will be a good steward of personal needs, including a balanced spiritual, physical, and emotionally healthy life. We encourage personal development in spirit, mind, and strength.

Please submit your resume to bkingccc@gmail.com subject: student ministry search committee